DISCOVERY ORDER

09 Civ. 118 (VM) (FM)

FRANK MAAS, United States Magistrate Judge.

I have reviewed the parties' submissions concerning the continued deposition of Harry Markopolos, who apparently neither lives nor works in New York.

Counsel may continue the deposition of Mr. Markopolos in New York City for an additional four hours, during which time the Standard Chartered Plaintiffs may question him for an additional hour, the Standard Chartered Defendants may question him for two hours, and the Fairfield Defendants may question him for one hour. The Standard Chartered Plaintiffs shall pay Mr. Markopolos' travel expenses; any of the Plaintiff or Defendant groups wishing to question him shall compensate him for his time at the rate of $500 per hour.

I note that Mr. Cunha has a conflict on September 21, apparently because of a personal matter, and would urge all counsel to take steps to accommodate his concern.
